Shivering Strings 2010 has assembled a cast of experienced workshop instructors.

Camp director Gordon Stobbe has a long list of recording and performing credits including several instructional books and CDs of traditional and original music. Throughout the year Gordon teaches classes in fiddle and mandolin in Halifax and instructs at fiddle camps across Canada.

Kelli Trotter is an Ontario based musician who is well known nationally as a fiddler, singer and stepdancer. She currently records and plays with her own group and is a member of the international touring group, 'Bowfire'.

Greg Simm performs on a variety of stringed instruments, teaches guitar in Dartmouth and also instructs at music workshops across Canada.

Skip Holmes is a multi-instrumentalist with a long history of accompanying projects with nationally known players. He has many years experience as a stringed instrument teacher and has published a book on guitar accompaniment.

Geoff Horrocks of Ottawa is an in-demand piano accompanist and teacher at fiddle camps across Canada. He has many credits as both a player and engineer for recording projects in the Ottawa area. Geoff also plays fiddle and guitar and is an accomplished singer.

Join us for a weekend of workshops and jam sessions.

Camp Music

Sheet music and audio files will be distributed to participants once registration fees are paid in full.

The traditional student concert has been replaced with jam sessions and Instructor Concerts on Friday and Saturday evenings.

All music camp sessions will be held at Oak Island Resort.
