Camp director Gordon Stobbe has a long list of recording and performing credits including several instructional books and CDs of traditional and original music. Throughout the year Gordon teaches at fiddle camps across Canada.

Kelli Trottier is an Ontario based musician who is well known nationally as a fiddler, singer and step dancer. Kelli has extensive experience teaching privately, in workshops and at music camps.

Skip Holmes has taught guitar, banjo, fiddle and mandolin at the Canadian Conservatory for many years, as well as being a frequent instructor at fiddle camps and guitar workshops across the country.

Stacey Read hails from Sackville NB and teaches fiddle, step dance and piano to over 50 private students. A graduate of Berklee College of Music in Boston, Stacey is happy to be passing on her love of old time fiddle music to the next generation
